I've noticed some guys like him (read: 10/10s) sometimes become the type where it's not even about how good a girl looks, it just becomes a numbers game or just a question of where it is and when. I think he fucked her mostly because he was in Boston, he was drunk and she was in front of him. You wouldn't pick her out of the crowd or something, she's lucky. Boston/Munich - Not only in a recent triumph in Atlanta, when he was awarded the MVP. Julian Edelman was one of the X-factors. He also played a key role in the New England Patriots' Super Bowl victory in February 2015. When the wide receiver lifted the Vince Lombardi Trophy into the sky at Confetti at university Phoenix Stadium, he had no idea that he would become a trophy himself a little later. The cherished bachelor was in bed with a young blonde during the Victory celebrations. And she had nothing to do but share a picture of herself and the sleeping football star on dating app Tinder. The image went viral, with the words Just Fucked Edelman, Don't Lie, being legendary. Edelman is silent, who sleeps peacefully in the photo, may have only seen the photo on the Internet. It is not known whether the 32-year-old receiver regrets one night. To date, Edelman has not said a word about the affair. In any case, the football player came out of the list unscathed, neither girlfriend nor wife were deceived, and patriots fans - almost the entire state of Massachusetts - united for their loved ones. Her full name was quickly released, Sabrina Dudish was banned in many Boston bars. While Edelman celebrated and celebrated at the Victory Parade through Boston, Dudish could hardly be seen on the city streets. Obviously, I made a mistake. Some of the players have already written to me that they are very disappointed. she told TIME. I was drunk and I feel terrible. But I can't undo it. Edelman continues to PirschDudish seems to have learned her lesson, at least as far as social media is concerned. It is not available on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram. And Julian Edelman? Now I have a baby. However, he was not told to have a firm relationship with his mother. But one can almost certainly assume that the Pats receiver survived the case without a lasting injury. After recent success in Atlanta more than ever. This time there were no complications at the Victory celebrations after that. Want to get the most important NFL news right on your smartphone? Then wear yourself for our Ein. Matt Keohan 6 years ago We live in a world where we can't eat dinner without posting a photo of it on Instagram, can't raise our kids, not bringing our 1,473 Facebook friends together for a ride, and can't enjoy a concert without putting our phones in the air for the whole set. I know I'm talking like Clint Eastwood from Gran Torino, but to be honest, I'm going to get off my fucking picture would bolster her social status and Boston-area dudes would line up for wine, dine, and possibly a chicken bone that hit his city's favorite football star. It wasn't what happened. Sabrina was essentially blacklisted, a petition sparked by Boston club owner Michael Winter. He wrote on Facebook: For many years I have not BLACK LISTED anyone from nightclubs. YOU BLACK LISTED 86'd, so stay at Metro West. Putting Edelman on the domain during the celebration... By the way you're 5 if that, and it was blacking out. I'm sure I speak on behalf of many Boston PPL industries so as not to show my face in this city. Then Sabrina went to control the damage and apologized, but the damage has already been done: I made a mistake. I feel really bad about it... He passed out, and I was bored, I think. I was drunk ... and I made a mistake and I feel terrible about it. Moral story: Keep your friends close, but your celebrity conquests are closer. Okay, well, here are all the boobs and butts we saw at the EDM Pool Splash House party boston.barstoolsports.com/n/iarou... Page 2boston.barstoolsports.com/n/iarou... Late last month, a girl named Stephanie took to Tinder to let the world know that she (allegedly) slept with Giants wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. I fucked Odell Beckham Jr. she wrote in her Tinder bio, beneath a photo of her (or at least the girl we assume she is) kissing OBJ on the cheek. Get on my vaginal level. And now it seems as if one girl has decided to try and get to her level. Her name is Sabrina, and she just posted a photo of her (or again, the girl we assume is her) in bed with a man who looks very much like Patriots wide receiver Julian Edelman. And on top of the photo, she included the words: Just fucked Edelman is not a lie. It should be noted that Edelman himself is not a big fan of Tinder. Back in January 2013, he joined Tinder. But he quit less than a month later. And something tells us that it will make him hate Tinder even more. So who is the next athlete to end up on the wrong end of one of these Tinder photos? (via Deadspin) Send all complaints, compliments and tips sportstips@complex.com. Super Bowl life has its ups ... definitely not a fall. You get to lift the Lombardi Trophy, you get to go to Disneyland and of course you can bag any girl in America. Just ask Gronk. But, Patriots receiver Julian Edelman caught sleeping (literally) when one girl snapped his photo after they spent the night together after his Super Bowl victory. Gen-Y groupies must be the worst. Not only are they thirsty, but they have no problem bragging about it on social media. As long as there are new apps and ways for them to share this personal information, they are going to let the world know! Just ask Odell Beckham, Jr. Update: The girl has since been banned from Boston clubs. Citations: Sabrina fucked Edelman Noli (BSO) (BSO)
